

Best Practices Grant Writing Training For Public Safety Agencies

February 6th-7th, 2010

Time: 8 AM – 5PM

Sponsored By:

Victor VFD

Location:

Victor VFD Stationhouse

Victor VFD. 34 Maple Ave., Victor, NY 14564

The Victor VFD is pleased to announce that we will be presenting a 16-hour specialized class on developing, writing and applying to grant programs from DHS/FEMA/Federal/State/Corporate and Private Foundations. The training is specifically directed at First Responder Agencies of Police/Fire/EMS and Emergency Management or local government agencies seeking funding from the aforementioned grant funding sources. The class is open to anyone to attend who has interests in Federal/State/ Local grant writing. This training will be presented by nationally renowned grant consultant, Kurt Bradley.

Kurt Bradley is a Vice President for Homeland Defense Grants and presents grant writer training workshops across the US and offers specialized grant consulting services to those public safety agencies. His clients and students have achieved and impressive 78% overall success rate and won more than $160 million dollars in awards since 2004.

Come and learn how to read and interpret RFPs and the program guidance and learn what you should be paying attention to and why. Learn how to rate your own project's chance of success and how to increase those chances for success. Discover the secrets to developing a successful program and how to turn the odds in your favor. Find out how the wrong answer to just one question can destroy your chances at an award. This is meat and potatoes information, not smoke and mirrors. It's not information just about the program; its information about how to "win the award". You will receive more than 15 recently funded examples of actual grant applications for these various programs.

In this economy the competition for grant dollars will be extremely high this coming year. You will need a competitive edge over the competition;

He can provide that competitive edge!

Tuition : $299 per person for local government and First Responder Agencies for 2-days training
